Magic!! Wear a name tag and change strangers into friends

In September, we're changing people we don't know in our congregation into friends, by making and wearing name badges.

There are name tag badges (new-these won't fall off!) and marker on a table in the Main Street and Alley Entrances for your name. At the end of service, greet those around you by name -- you might even get to know a new friend. There are also plastic badges to stick your name tag on and keep with you for Sunday services.

Volunteers needed to make sack lunches in September and October!

When: Saturday 9am-10:30.

Where: FUMC basement

If you can serve on one of those Saturdays, please let Lorraine Carlson know – madamecarlson@gmail.com

After years of sharing powerful stories, changing lives, and building community through theater, No Joke Theater is preparing to take its final bow. Since 2021, No Joke Theater has served participants of pre-release programs, individuals under court-order supervision, the formerly incarcerated and members of the recovery community. As we bring this chapter to a close, we are committed to ending the program the same way we built it; with excellence, purpose, and a deep respect for the people whose stories deserve to be heard. Our final production THE LAST HURRAH consists of 4 one-act plays by participants: Tom Doherty, Carl Ray Miller, Brandy Sularz and Kathie Tattory. It is a thoughtful, and sometimes humorous reflection on booze, prison and recovery. - Leah Joki,

NO JOKE THEATER

The show at FUMC is on Thursday September 17th, 7pm in the Youth Lair (2nd floor room 203).

Because of Lorraine C's cancer treatments, she and Steve are not able to use their GRIZ football tix at the moment, so they have two to give away. The seats are in the upper deck of the east side. Please contact Steve C if interested.
